

What you need to know

The Arson Prevention Program for Children (TAPP-C)

Fire Department professional will provide a home assessment
Mental Health Professional will provide a Risk assessment

The assessments will. . . .

- Gain information about the factors that contribute to the child's fire setting
- Look at the risk
- Look at and decrease the risk for ongoing fire setting
- Develop a plan with child and family to be safe
- Develop a plan for ongoing services in the community

Collaboration with London and Middlesex Fire Department and Vanier

Referral to Alternative Pathways Program (RAPP)

- Children who would be involved with the law but are under the age of 12
- Children who are using violence to solve their problems
- Children who are having conflict at home with parents
- Children who are displaying negative behaviour in school or community

Police will encourage parents to contact the Vanier Crisis Intake line at 519 433-0334 in order to develop a treatment plan to meet each family's needs.

TAPP-C

What is RAPP

RAPP is a program to reduce incidents of delinquent/unlawful behaviour in children 7 – 12 years of age and to promote positive choices.

Have you noticed any of the following:

- unexplained possessions
- unexpected change in moods/ behaviours
- change in peer groups
- isolation
- change in school performance and attendance

What is TAPP-C?

TAPP-C is a program to reduce inappropriate fire involvement, including intentional firesetting and/ or match/lighter play, and to promote fire safety among children and youth aged 7 - 12 years.

If you notice any of the following, your child may be involved in dangerous fire behaviour:

- Matches or lighters go missing
- Matches or lighters are found among your child's belongings
- There are unexplained burn marks on household items or your child's clothing or possessions
- Your child is extremely interested in fire
